

CONNECTING THE NORTH

For over 100 years, the Ontario Northland Transportation Commission, headquartered in North Bay, has provided innovative and competitive transportation and telecommunications solutions to the residents of Northern Ontario including rail (passenger and freight), road (motor coach) and telecom (Internet, voice, data, and information technology services).

President and CEO

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the chief executive will contribute leadership, strategy, direction and enthusiasm to a staff of 1,000 and manage a total budget of $150 million. The President will work closely with the board and the executive team to develop a compelling vision and strategy, establish the targets and standards of performance and drive Ontario Northland to build on past success and realize its full potential.

You are an accomplished and experienced consensus-building executive. You possess a successful track record as a strategic communicator and adept listener, managing and leading a large group of professionals and building high performance teams. Self-confidence, flexibility and resilience are among your strengths and you exhibit a tendency toward action and results, tempered by an appreciation for the culture, intensity and tempo of a quasi government organization.

Broad experience in a complex organization with diverse stakeholders is a must. You are well known as a politically astute and visionary leader who is comfortable working with boards, agencies, community groups, all levels of government, labour and the media. You inspire a shared vision and drive for results in a climate of accountability. Experience in a transportation, telecommunications and/or public sector environment is a definite asset for the successful candidate.
